

Stealers.... are a rogue mob existing of 4 city boys gone wild! They have been spotted since the summer of 2007. Since then, several attacks on law abiding citizens occurred viciously out of the blue.

Their goal: To deafen the land and make people listen to nothing else but Stealers anymore.

Their ways: Operating from the dirtiest city around, Rotterdam, they travel to cities everywhere. There they make alliances at venues that actually pay them to show up and perform their outrageous musical mixture of 77 Punk'n'Soul'n'80's-Cock'n'Roll!

The audience doesn't even have a clue what is happening to them! The Mob steals their money, girlfriends, drinks, hearing and what more Strangely and alarming enough, this way they manage to create a growing following supporting their evil ways.

Who are Stealers?

Rudo - "Teeth Rattling" Guitars
Pet - "Ear Tearing" Vocals
P.G. Vogeli - "Wall Breaking" Bass
Gerben - "Evil Batteria"Drums

Future: Since the summer of 2007, these attacks have only grown larger and are appearing.. more and more frequently. Their ever growing following is threatening a nation and it is feared this is spreading around the world as we speak! Can they be stopped? Or more importantly, should they be stopped? I heard them play the other day and they are quite good! I'm sending them some money to help them along the way, just to see what'll happen. You should do so too!
